

Reverend Ammie L. Davis-Miller

"Combines a love of God with a passion for ministering to the People."

Ammie L. Davis was born in Philadelphia, Mississippi on December 25, 1965. She is the second of seven children born to Mrs. Thelma Butler and Charles Lee Davis.

During her childhood, she learned the value of hard work and determination as she helped care for her siblings.

Rev. Davis attended Hattiesburg High until her senior year then she transferred mid-fall to Forrest County Agricultural High School. She graduated from Forrest County Agricultural High School in 1983 and went on to attend Clark Memorial Junior College on a basketball scholarship. In the fall of 1985, she transferred to William Cary College where she remained until enlisting in the United States Navy in January 1988.

While in the Navy, Rev. Davis continued her education and received her Bachelor's in Business Administration and Human Resource Management from Southern New Hampshire University and has begun to earn credits toward an MBA.

During her naval career, Rev. Davis has received training as a Hospital Corpsman, Physical Therapy Technician and an Emergency Medical Technician. In April 2002, Rev. Davis was commissioned as an officer in the United States Naval Reserve and currently serves at the rank of Lieutenant Junior Grade. In June 2002, she attended Navy Chaplain School in Newport, Rhode Island, as a Chaplain Candidate Program Officer, graduating on August 13, 2002.

As a youth and until joining the Navy, Rev. Davis attended Zion Chapel A.M.E. Church in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. She has remained active in church activities at military base chapels and at local churches in the communities of her duty stations. Her many positions include service as a Sunday School Teacher, Associate Minister, Youth Minister, Conference Speaker and Young Adults Pastor. In November 2000, she was ordained as an Itinerant Deacon and in November 2002 ordained as an Itinerant Elder by the Rt. Rev. C. Garnett Henning, Sr., Presiding Prelate of the Eight Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church..

Rev. Davis a graduate of Turner Theological Seminary. She completed her studies May 8, 2004.

She was elected President for Turner Student Fellowship while matriculating at Turner. She organized the Charles Hurley James Resource Center and Computer Lab at Turner Theological Seminary. She was inducted into the International Society of Theta Phi which is an honor society for Theological Studies, November 6, 2003.

Rev. Davis is the Senior Pastor of Turner Chapel—Columbus, Mississippi. She was elected as the new Alumni President of the Turner Theological Seminary, February 1, 2005.

Rev. Miller was wedded in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Roy Douglas Miller, Sr., on September 3, 2005. Bishop C. Garnett Henning Sr., officiated the ceremony at Pearl Street AME Church, Jackson Mississippi.

Her life is a testimony to the incredible mercy and boundless grace of God through which we all are saved....persistence

Rev. Davis' Motto:

*Worship God Wholeheartedly
Teach God's Word Effectively
Reach Out to Others Creatively
Encourage Others Continually*